Town officials want $400,000 cut from district budget; directors offer to cut $95,000

The selectmen of the five towns that make up the school district Monday night agreed to seek $400,000 in cuts in the proposed $4.15 million school budget. The proposed budget is a 16 percent year-to-year increase over the present budget. The proposed cuts—of 10 percent—would reduce the budget increase to 6 percent. The school board's original proposed budget envisioned an increase in local tax bills of 25-35 percent. The budget suggested by the selectmen envisions local tax bill increases of 10-15 percent.

While the selectmen were in the Greenwood town hall discussing how much of a tax bill increase their townspeople could stand, the school directors were at the Telstar library giving ground to the demands of the selectmen for cuts. The school directors agreed on $95,000 in cuts and added another $105,000 to the revenue side—from state money that was being held in reserve. (See school board story.)

The selectmen of the five towns agreed on the $400,000 cut after taking a written ballot on how much each thought the cut should be. With only three selectmen missing, the range of proposed cuts was from a high of $700,000 to a low of zero. The average was $420,000. (Throwing out the one zero and the one $700,000, the average was above $500,000.) Greenwood Selectman Herb Dunham was one of those who wanted a steeper cut. "I think this year we've got to cut real hard," he said.

On the other hand, Newry Selectman Steve Wight said the budget could not be cut unless the selectmen were prepared to go through it line by line and suggest where the cuts should be made.

Bethel resident Ted Chadbourne, who was observing the proceedings, argued that the group should propose specific cuts with specific dollar amounts. "By taking an average you're going further

Construction begins on 32-unit condominium at former Barn Motel

Construction began last week on what will be a 32-unit condominium at the site of the present Barn Motel.

Taking part in the groundbreaking ceremonies last Friday were Jim Delamater of the Bethel Savings Bank (the new owner of the property), architect Jim Yarnell, of Upton, and general contractor Jim Knight, of Rumford Point.

The architectural plan envisions adding six additional units to the eight existing units at ground level. Above the ground-level units, a second story of 14 units will be added. Additionally, at the back of the motel, towards the tennis courts, another four units will be added on the lower grade. The total reconstruction will leave the property with 32 units—all of which have been pre-sold. The structure will have a clapboard exterior and a pitched roof, according to architect Yarnell.

The new owners envision renting out the units to travelers and tourists when the owners are not using them.

MSAD #44 DIRECTORS' MEETING

Consider $199,063 local assessment reduction

The SAD #44 Board of Directors met in regular session in the library at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

The directors reviewed portions of the proposed FY 87 budget, with an eye toward a reduction in the amount to be assessed the member towns of the District.

On the revenue side of the budget, it was the feeling of the board that $103,760 in added receipts would be possible by utilizing the entire $158,760 in state block grant funds toward teachers' salaries in the 1987 fiscal period. It had been the board's intent to use $500 per teacher in FY 1987, carrying the balance forward to be utilized in FY 1988. To use the entire amount in fiscal 1987 it will be necessary to re-open block grant negotiations with the Telstar Educators Association.

Coupled with the increase on the revenue side, board members appeared to favor a budget reduction of $95,303, to be achieved by the elimination of the following amounts: heating oil, $7,576; new Telstar burner, $25,000; curriculum travel, $600; curriculum textbooks—elementary social studies, $3,991; curriculum audio/visual materials, $2,150; curriculum machine purchase, $850; secondary social studies textbooks, $1,400; secondary social studies audio/visual, $5,573; science/social studies dues and fees, $1,350; central office supplies, $1,500; all telephones,

$2,800; all instructional staff travel, $400; elementary athletic supplies, $2,500; secondary athletic supplies, $2,500; food service, $15,375; board of directors books, $50; curriculum supplies, $100; curriculum books, $100; superintendent books, $150; principals books, $550; maintenance equipment rental, $250; maintenance general supplies, $3,000; maintenance electricity, $3,000; transportation, $3,000.

Perham trial today

The trial of Jody Perham, of West Paris, was expected to begin this morning (Wednesday), in superior court in Auburn.

Mr. Perham is facing a number of charges, including attempted murder, assault and escaping from the county jail.

Although he originally pleaded innocent to all charges, he has since agreed to plead guilty in an exchange for a reduced sentence, according to the district attorney and his defense counsel.

District Attorney Janet Mills told The Citizen it was still up to the judge to decide whether to accept the guilty plea and whether to consider the terms of the sentencing agreement worked out by the two sides.

Open house being held at Inn's conference center

An open house reception will mark the formal opening of The Bethel Inn and Country Club's new Conference Center this Saturday, May 17, from 5 to 7 p.m. While several conferences have already been held in the center since it became operational in March, this will be the first opportunity for Bethel residents and other friends of the Inn to tour the center.

The Conference Center will be dedicated to the memory of Charles J. Kennedy and Kaleel Jamison.

Chuck Kennedy was a longtime friend and business associate of the owner, Dick Raso, and passed away in 1984. He was formerly publisher of Newsweek and Town and Country magazines, and was honored as Man of the Year for the Marco Polo Club in New York City.

His widow, Joan Kennedy, and Brian, one of his three sons, will be at the reception.

Kaleel Jamison, longtime friend of The Bethel Inn and staff member with NTL Institute, passed away in August, 1985. She conducted countless workshops for NTL on a wide range of subjects including Team Building, the Organization Woman, and Developing the Organizational and Personal Self.

She was the author of The Nibble Theory and her views on "how we can become all we are capable of being" appeared in such publications as the Wall Street Journal and Savvy magazine.

Kaleel's husband, Bill Jamison, will be attending the reception from Cincinnati, Ohio.

The new Conference Center is a 5,600 square foot complex situated between the Elms guest building and the Bethel Library, facing Broad Street. Those driving should utilize the Elms' driveway and the new parking lot behind the Conference Center.

Bahre buys Evergreen

Oxford Hills businessman Bob Bahre Monday completed purchase of the Evergreen Valley Resort, in East Stoneham. The total purchase price was $1,350,000, which was paid to the Finance Authority of Maine. FAME had been trying to get rid of the hard-luck resort for years, since taking it over in bankruptcy proceedings.

The saga may not be over, however, as Mr. Bahre threatened to sell the property if he cannot come to an agreement with some of the time-share condominium owners.

Democrats play to the gallery

Demonstrating better political sense than common sense, the state's Democrats, meeting in Waterville last week, adopted a platform advocating the premature shutdown of Maine Yankee in 1988 and converting the plant to burn coal.

When the plant was opened it was licensed to run for 35 years, until 2008. To convert it to burn coal in the middle of its lifespan would incur costs nearly 10 times as great as the original cost of the plant.

While nuclear power is a dangerous way of generating electricity—because of the danger of an accident that would contaminate the area with radioactivity and because there is no reliable method for dealing with the deadly spent fuel—the fact is that Mainers decided years ago to allow Maine Yankee to open. Having made that decision, Mainers must now live with it.

The Democrats, at their state convention, played on people's fears of a Chernobyl accident occurring at Wiscasset, and fears of a high-level nuclear waste dump in Maine.

There is the possibility of a nuclear accident at any of the country's 100 nuclear plants. But the possibility seemingly has decreased since Three Mile Island brought questions of plant safety into national focus.

As for the link between producing nuclear waste and storing nuclear waste, there is no link. The State of Nevada, which has no nuclear plants, is among the three finalists for receiving the country's first high-level dump.

The spent fuel already produced by Maine Yankee will have to be stored somewhere, and a bit more or a bit less at this point of the game will not change the rules of the game.

Maine Yankee, which cost $250 million to build, is currently producing electricity for 2½ cents per kilowatt hour. If the company were to spend the nearly $2 billion envisioned to convert to coal, the cost of electricity from the plant would rise to 11-12 cents per kilowatt hour, according to a company spokesman. Spokesman John Arnold notes that the Zimmer plant, in Ohio, which is still under construction, is converting from nuclear to coal, at a cost of $1.7 billion. How much more for a conversion of an operating nuclear plant? "The coal conversion idea is technically feasible but economically prohibitive," concludes Mr. Arnold.

Disregarding such opinions, the Democrats, including all Democratic candidates for governor except Dave Redmond, decided an anti-nuke stand was a popular stand to take at the moment. It is that. But when voters look at the economic realities and consider that scrapping Maine Yankee won't get the state off the DOE's list of possible dump sites, it is likely that the Democrats will want to forget they ever raised the issue.

Let us have no more nukes, and let us fight to put off burying any nuclear waste anywhere. But let us not play politics with the issues.

RAILROAD MUSEUM TO OPEN

The Bethel Area Steam Era Railroad Committee met Wednesday night, May 6, at RFD #1. It was voted to open the museum on Memorial Day weekend, pending approval by the Health Center board to renew the lease.

The group discussed staffing of the museum and anyone interested in preserving the history of the railroads in the Bethel area was urged to volunteer as a staffer. If interested, contact Wende Gray, 824-2187, or Irene Pike, 824-2614.

Fundraising possibilities were discussed, including a dance, having mugs made with the Railroadiana logo to sell to the local restaurants and possibly a "toll crossing" day.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, May 21, 6 p.m., at the museum.

No progress in talks between Boise and union

With eight negotiating sessions in back of them, union representatives at the contract talks between Boise Cascade and the 1,200-member papermakers local reported no progress at all. "Nothing has changed, really," said union president Don Barker.

The union dropped its demand for changes in the absentee policy, he said, and the company made a half-dozen minor wording changes in their original proposal, but "nothing earth-shattering," he said.

Asked what the major issues are still dividing the two sides, Mr. Barker said, "Everything."

The current three-year contract expires June 30.

Local students invited to Maine Scholars Days

Upwards of 500 of Maine's most-gifted high school juniors will converge on the University of Maine at Orono campus May 18-20 for the ninth annual Maine Scholars Days.

MUNDT-ALLEN POST #81

Mundt-Allen Post #81, American Legion, Bethel, met at a special meeting, Monday, May 5. At this time a fourth boy was sponsored by the Post to attend Boys State, providing space is available. The Post also voted a $500 donation to the Gettysburg Preservation Project.

This project is part of a campaign to encourage each state to preserve their state memorials at this historic site. To date Pennsylvania and North Carolina have donated $115,000 to preserve their state's memorials. Maine has 24 monuments, memorials and markers commemorating the action at Gettysburg July 1-3, 1863. Maine ranks in the top five in monuments, which has been described as the largest outdoor museum of stone and bronze in the world. Air pollution, particularly sulphur dioxide is causing many of the stone memorials to corrode. Immediate help is needed to correct this problem as the park funds are not sufficient to cover all the cost. A low pressure soft abrasive will be used to clean the monuments followed by an application of corrosion inhibitor and a wax sealer to keep out water and polluted air.

The cost to repair the State of Maine Monuments and Memorials has been set at $14,100.

Recognition awards will be presented to all donors and any person may contribute to this cause. Contributions are tax-deductible as prescribed by law. Information on this may be obtained by contacting a member of the Mundt-Allen Post #81. As there are many area residents who can proudly trace relationships to participants in the Civil War, a positive response to this project is hoped for.

RETIRED TEACHERS TO MEET IN OXFORD MAY 17

The Oxford Retired Teachers will meet on Saturday, May 17, at the Legion Hall in Oxford. Social hour starts at 10:30, the business meeting at 11:15. In the afternoon Perry Amundsen will speak on the health advocacy services of the AARP. Scholarship fundraiser will be a plant sale.

Standardized examination for full, half and quarter-tuition scholarships to attend UMO. Scholarship winners will be announced at the close of Maine Scholars Days.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The school budget has raised many controversial issues. For the schools one can say that the effectiveness of education cannot be measured by one test. For the public, who is paying the bills, the fact that salaries are higher in other localities is not the entire story. There are advantages in living in this area, and those who value them less than money are free to seek better opportunities elsewhere.

The basic issue seems to be that the cost is too high and will damage the entire life of the towns. Why cannot the school administrators present areas where cuts could be made and let the people vote on this? This might do away with the somewhat prevailing and unfortunate notion that a group is seeking to impose its will without regard for the general welfare.

To live within one's means... to do the best possible with the resources available... to realize that one cannot always have exactly what one wishes... to settle differences with a friendly compromise... perhaps these learnings would be as valuable to our young people as some programs that may be lost.

Beckie Bailey

To the Editor:

As a parent in SAD #44, I find myself very concerned with the controversy going on about the school budget.

I realize that the increases sound like more than we can bear, but maybe we should reconsider some of our priorities. We must begin to think of our tax dollars as an investment in the future. Whether we have children in school or not, supporting our schools is a positive step for the future of our community.

How many of us did not bet an eye as we signed a contract with Bethel Cablevision committing ourselves to payments of anywhere from $9 to $50 a month? Do you realize that totals from $108 to $600 a year? I find it upsetting that we are willing to spend that kind of money on television and scream about tax increases that average, for most people, $25 to $200. Is this too much to invest in our children's futures?

Let's get the facts before we panic. Get the exact figures from your town office, then make your decision. Education is too important for us to make hasty decisions without all the facts.

I vote yes for an education that will enable my children to compete with children from other school districts when it comes time for college.

Also a Concerned Parent

To Concerned Voters/Taxpayers: Unfortunately we have come to the point of "we" vs "them" in this year's SAD #44 budget request. The "we" being those of us who by virtue of our chosen profession are taking the brunt of the criticism, the "them" being those of you who are choosing to make "emotional" decisions to an emotional issue without looking carefully at why we are at this point.

Even though I am a teacher, I too am a taxpayer of SAD #44, and contrary to some thoughts, am definitely not overpaid! I work a part time job during the school year, and a full time job during my "summer off" to supplement my "substantial" salary. This is the first year in my teaching career that my children have been elevated to reduce lunch, an advancement from free lunch. I can also add that this is the first year I'm no longer eligible for food stamps, and actually fall $300 above the Maine State Poverty Level Guidelines, all this and a B.S. too!

For those of you that are unaware of the costs of furthering your education, let me add that to become certified to teach your child, I am expected to take 40/thirty-hour classes, 2 practicum, and 2 semesters of student teaching, ALL done without pay, but in turn at an expense of no less than $150 per class. For those of us unable to achieve this without the benefit of student aid, thus reducing the need for no more than 2 part time jobs, while maintaining passing grades, home and family, we are now faced with years of "pay backs." I might add the first year of teaching I broke even. My starting salary 3 years ago was $10,000, the equivalent of 1 years college cost, and at the present rate of educational pay backs compared to projected salary increases, I can expect to catch up with what a school janitor made during that time in about 10 more years!

In short, we that have chosen the teaching profession, and have somehow obtained that goal, only I ask you, as parents/taxpayers to look upon us as respected and reliable professionals, who are truly working for you and your children, and not as "money grubbers!" We ARE NOT the only district in Maine facing this crisis, we ARE NOT the only district in Maine with Mis-informed Taxpayers! We are certainly NOT the only district on Maine with Mis-informed Taxpayers! We are however, a district that strives to maintain a comprehensive education for our students, as well as provide a positive learning environment. In the past 5 years, I have been a part of 4 school districts within the area, and what

Andover lawsuit settled

The lawsuit against Andover town officials and Oxford County officials following the death of Kevin Gammon on July 3, 1984, has been settled out of court.

The teenager was killed when his motorcycle ran into bleachers placed in the road by vandals on the eve of Independence Day. His parents—Ira Gammon, of Andover, and Jean Gammon, of Rumford—sought compensation from the town and the county for what they considered official negligence in the death of their son.

The settlement, according to town officials, provided $45,000 from the town's insurance policy and $10,000 from the county's insurance. The insurance company for both bodies was American Fidelity Insurance Co. Officials of the insurance agency involved in the settlement—Kyes Agency, of Rumford—did not return phonecalls seeking information on the case.

The attorney for the plaintiffs—Tom Carey, of Rumford—said he first served notice on the town and county in December 1984 that they would be held liable for the Gammon boy's death. He never actually filed suit in superior court, he said, because the insurance company seemed willing to settle the matter out of court.

"I think the town has learned a lesson about the type of activity that has been going on (around Independence Day) and they have taken measures to ensure that it doesn't happen again," the attorney said.

Tri-Town Rescue

As soon as the Life Capsule stickers arrive, members will start the Every Member Canvass. Please give generously when the Tri-Town member comes to your home. All proceeds from this canvassing will go to the building fund of a new rescue barn in West Paris.

Team captains have been established for each town. Please contact that person, if you aren't visited, to make a donation. Greenwood, Kay Hakala; Sumner, Ruth Scribner; West Paris, Mary Emery; and Woodstock, Doreen Benson. Also donations can be mailed directly to Treasurer Richard Walker, RFD #2, Buckfield, Maine 04220.

The Region 11 board has approved the construction of the new rescue barn by the building trades students as their fall project.

The baked bean supper prior to the Old Parisians Dance in West Sumner was a huge success, serving over 300 people in three settings. And Tri-Town even had food left over.

An EMT refresher course will start May 19 and continue Monday and Thursday nights for five weeks at Ledgewick. Arlene Greenleaf of Bethel will be the instructor.

Joanne Lee, Tri-County EMT coordinator, is teaching a mass casualty training session Tuesday, May 20, at Ledgewick Memorial Home auditorium. For more information on this special training session, contact either Chief Mary Emery (874-2868) or Jane Chandler, training officer (872-2963).

SENIOR CITIZEN MEUS

Monday, May 19: Baked ham pattie, cheese wedge, mashed potatoes, peas and carrots, bread, pineapple.

Tuesday, May 20: Ground beef stroganoff on noodles, chopped broccoli, biscuit, pear ginger treat.

Thursday, May 22: Barbecue chicken, mashed potatoes, green beans, hot roll, peaches.

I've seen at SAD #44 reinforces the decision I made 10 years ago to go into education. We have a caring and capable Administration and Staff here, and I encourage you to Get Accurate Facts, while realizing that any educational system CANNOT constant. We live in an ever changing world. Do we educate our children to keep up with the changes? This is the question we need to think about, because without your support, our hands are tied.

The real issue here IS NOT teachers salaries, rather it is how do we, as teachers, use what we've strived and paid for, both financially and emotionally, to do the job we've chosen when we don't have the support or materials needed to carry out that task. If I were a doctor working with out-dated equipment and supplies, would you feel comfortable sending your child to me? Even if reduced my fee? YOU expect professional services, complain about our pay, yet refuse to up-grade our equipment. It's YOUR district, YOUR children. We want to EDUCATE, not PLACATE!

Sincerely,
The Teacher!

Bradley trial begins May 20 in South Paris

The trial of Rafael Neil Bradley Jr., of North Waterford, is scheduled to begin next Tuesday, May 20, in superior court in South Paris.

The 19-year-old Bradley is accused of murdering Russell Stevens, of East Stoneham, Nov. 15, 1985, in the course of robbing Mr. Stevens' pickup truck at gunpoint.

Justice Carl Bradford will preside over the trial. Assistant Attorney General Nick Gess will be the prosecutor, while David Whittier will be the defense attorney.

The first order of business when the trial begins, at 9 a.m., will be selection of a 12-person jury, with two alternates.

Mr. Bradley has been held in isolation at the county jail awaiting trial.

Local Democrats attend convention

Local Democrats attended their State Convention held at Colby College in Waterville on May 9 and 10. Bethel Democrats were represented by Town Chairman Paul McGuire, State Representative Jeff Mills, Robin Lee, Daniel Cousins, Ginger Kelly, and Catherine Newell. Michael McGuire, a student at Colby College, attended as an alternate. Representing Woodstock at the convention were Irene and Sterling Mills, Fred Raymond, and Ed Stricker. Jill Simmons, a Gould Academy senior attended the convention as a Tierney campaign worker as part of her Senior May Project for the academy.

The keynote speaker for the convention was Senator Jay Rockefeller of West Virginia who spoke eloquently concerning the need for a fundamental commitment to education on the part of the nation if the country is to reverse the international trade deficit. He faulted the Reagan administration for lack of leadership in meeting the challenge of preserving jobs, helping dislocated workers, and reviving domestic industries. He warned of the crisis looming as the nation is faced with a shortage on one million teachers by 1993.

The Oxford County delegation, particularly those from Norway-Paris and Bethel, appeared to favor the gubernatorial candidacy of Attorney General Jim Tierney, with State Senator Bill Diamond gathering support from Lovell and other towns in the southern part of the county. The small delegation attending from the Rumford-Mexico area was split between Rumford native Severin Bellevue and Tierney. Olive B. Moore was honored by the convention and presented with a silver tray in honor of her 10 years of service on the state committee. Mrs. Moore is retiring after 20 years as Register of Deeds and is seeking a seat in the House of Representatives from the Paris area.

Catherine Newell introduced an amendment to the party platform seeking increased support for adult education and this was accepted without opposition. Two of the gubernatorial candidates, Tierney and David Redmond, specifically mentioned adult education in their speeches to the convention. Under the Democratic party's new procedures for the Platform Committee, Mrs. Newell will, as the sponsor of the amendment, be added to the committee to work with them to see that the legislature addresses the platform items.

The Oxford County Democrats, the Bethel Democratic Town Committee and the Committee to Re-Elect Jeff Mills sponsored a booth with various fundraising activities, including the sale of pins, bumper stickers and T-shirts. The Bethel Democrats will continue this activity with a fund raising yard-sale at the home of Robin Lee and Paul McGuire on Winter Street on Sunday, June 1. Those with items to donate may bring them to the McGuire's house the week before the sale, or call 824-2365 to arrange for pick-up.

To the Editor:

I would like to let everyone know that the Woodstock elementary teachers deserve a big applause for the excellent display of their "Ripple in the Pond" grant.

Thanks for all your extra time and effort made to make our evening an enjoyable one.

Thank you again.

Telstar Summer School starting Friday, June 20

Telstar Regional High School's Guidance Department is again coordinating a summer school program for the 1986. A self-supporting program, it will offer remedial/make-up opportunities for present 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th graders who failed a school year course or two.

Courses offered will depend on enrollments, however, English, Basic Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Social Studies, World Studies, United States History, Earth Science, and Biology are some courses planned for this summer.

Students are invited to attend from junior/senior high schools, such as Buckfield, Dirigo, Gould Academy, Mexico, Oxford Hills and Rumford. Summer School will start on Friday, June 20 and end on Friday, July 25. Class sessions will be 7:30-9:30 a.m. and 9:30-11:30 a.m. Students are encouraged to register early, by contacting their respective junior high and high school offices or the Telstar Regional High School guidance office at 824-2138.

Registration deadline is Thursday, June 19.

NOTES FROM

Telstar Guidance

It's hard to believe another school year is almost over. With just four weeks of school remaining, there is much work to be done.

Mr. Hart, Mr. Morton, Miss Boyce and Mrs. Dreher completed administering the Maine Assessment tests to 75 juniors May 1 and 2. Mr. Hart completed the make-up testing last week. The juniors are to be commended for their excellent attendance, attentiveness and cooperation throughout the test administration. On May 8, Mr. Hart accompanied 30 juniors to a College Fair at Fryeburg Academy. Over 80 New England colleges were represented giving our students an opportunity to preview colleges and programs they may have interest in pursuing at this time.

Following that up was a special Focus on the Future program at the University of Maine at Farmington on May 9. Mr. Hart chaperoned the 20 juniors who participated from Telstar. Students spent the entire day visiting campus, talking with faculty and students about UMF's programs. They also attended workshops designed to help them with writing admissions essays, how to present themselves during an admissions interview and showing them what to look for during a campus visit.

May seems to be the onth for testing. This week is administering Advanced Placement exams in Calculus, History and English. Then on Friday, juniors will take the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery.

On Monday, May 12, all college bound seniors were presented with a special College Survival Workshop. Mr. Hart, with assistance from Wendy Ault, UMF Admissions, provided these students with tips on "dorm life—living with others," study habits, time management, getting involved with campus activities, and suggestions concerning college term papers.

Scheduling for '86-'87 is nearing completion. Students will soon receive a computer printout listing their program for next year. It will go home for parents' final approval. It is important to note that this schedule will be conflict free so few changes should be necessary when students return in the fall.

VOLUNTEERISM CONFERENCE

The first Volunteerism Conference, May 3-4, sponsored by the Bethel/NTL Liaison Committee and the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce was a big success.

Leader of the conference was Eva Shindler-Raiman, of Los Angeles, Calif., an expert on volunteerism. Fifty-three people, representing 38 volunteer agencies in Maine, took part in the conference, which was held at Gould Academy.

The idea behind the conference was to gather together people who have a common problem to see if they could work out some solutions.

The sponsors are considering making the conference an annual event.

There will be a public hearing on the proposed fiscal year 1987 budget in the Telstar auditorium at 7 o'clock on Monday evening, May 26. (The annual district budget meeting is scheduled for Wednesday evening, May 28, at 7 o'clock in the Telstar auditorium.)

A contract for the construction of the new elementary school in Woodstock in the amount of $1,086,989 was awarded to Gordon Burke General Contractors of North Conway, N.H. The well at the Woodstock site has been drilled by Goodwin's Well Drilling of North Turner at a cost of $2,407. The well is 202 feet deep and is producing 35 gallons a minute.

Marguerite Graham, a parent volunteer at Ethel Bissbee School, together with Wendy Ford and Kathleen McCluskey, teachers at Ethel Bissbee, discussed the student writing program. Many examples of student work were on exhibit.

An executive session was held on a matter of parental concern. This was on a matter tabled at the last regular meeting pending consultation with counsel. It was the finding of counsel, with which the board concurred, that barring a violation of school rules a student can not be required to engage in any educational program, counseling or testing (that may be part of a code of conduct or discipline).

The board tabled any action on a student discipline matter until the May 26 session of the board. The student suspension now in place will remain in effect. Catherine Newell was approved as full-time adult education director for fiscal year 1987 at a salary of $19,000.

Telstar science teacher Tim Kersey was introduced by Telstar Principal Ted Davis. Mr. Kersey presented the school with a set of World Book Encyclopedias, a part of his Presidential Award for Excellence in Science Teaching.

The program for the 1986 Telstar Summer School received board approval. Also approved were Gail McInnis Buker and Jodey Kimball as substitute teachers.

The directors declined to approve the use of district buses to transport voters to the annual budget meeting on May 28. One of the buses would have originated at Andover with a stop at Newry Corner and the other would have originated at Woodstock.

The resignation of Mary Jordan, special education resource room teacher at Crescent Park School, was accepted effective at the close of the current school year.

Board members not present Monday evening were: Harry Swan, Greenwood; Rick McVey, Newry; and Sheryl Wilbur, Woodstock.

The next regular meeting of the SAD #44 board will be held on Monday evening, May 26, following a public hearing on the FY 1987 district budget.

TOWN OFFICIALS WANT $400,000

 in the direction of asking people not to think... You'll increase your credibility if you show how the cuts can be made."

The majority of selectmen felt that the best they could do was indicate to the school board what level of tax increase could be borne by their townspeople and let the school board decide where to make cuts in order to stay within that tax increase limit.

Bethel Selectman Pat Doen spoke for the majority when she said, "I don't think we should make any recommendation to the school board as to what should be cut."

Bethel Selectman Peter Haines said a general, non-specific cut would force school officials to get rid of frills and go back to basics. "If they would stick to the three R's there's not enough we could cut," he said.

A program coming under particular fire was the adult education program, which provides high school courses for adults working on high school equivalency diplomas, as well as general interest programs for district residents.

"I don't think there should be any expense to the taxpayer for people to learn macramé or to combat cabin fever," said Woodstock Selectman George Hooper. "I have a real problem with adult ed."

Andover Selectman Arthur Myshrahl agreed: "I think it stinks."

Said Newry Selectman Roger Hanscom: "I think it's run away with itself."

When the consensus had been achieved for a $400,000 cut, the selectmen expressed satisfaction with their weeks of work. "I don't think the question is whether or not we can get 400,000 or 500,000, but whether we should make the attempt," said Woodstock Selectman Clifford York, who was moderator of most of the sessions.

"This exercise—even if it fails—is the best thing I've seen in the seven years I've been a selectman."

Mr. York felt the $400,000 cut proposed by the group was moderate. "The majority of taxpayers I've talked with would decimate that (budget)."

Mr. York noted, however, that it was still up to the residents of the district to decide how much of an increase they could stand on their tax bills. "The next step is for people to go to the budget meeting (May 28)," he said.

To drum up support for their position, the selectmen agreed to take out newspaper ads in the local paper and in regional papers, to mail out flyers to their towns' residents, and to write letters to the editors of the various papers. They will meet again next Monday evening, at 7 p.m., in the Greenwood town hall.

At their meeting last Thursday, the selectmen invited businesspeople from their towns to present their views on the school budget.

The selectmen also invited the area's state senators and state representatives. Sen. Ed Erwin and Rep. Jeff Mills were

OXFORD COUNTY COUNCIL

TO MEET AT FRYEBURG MAY 20

Oxford County Council of the American Legion will meet at the Fryeburg Legion Hall May 20 at 7:30 p.m. Members nominated for office are: commander, Stephen Syme; first vice commander, Gene Bickford; second vice commander, Earl Colby; adjutant, Larry Taylor; finance officer, Albert Judkins; service officer, Edward Miller; sgt.-at-arms, Charles B. Mason; chaplain, Robert Beck; and historian, Kovi George.

Election of officers will take place at this meeting. Installation will be held at Oxford at Anderson-Staples Post #112 on June 10. All officers are urged to attend. Installing officer will be Vito DeFilipp and his installing team.

unable to attend, but Sen. Don Twitchell and Rep. Joe Walker took part in the discussion, fielding questions about the Legislature's responsibility for the increased spending.

Also on hand was the chairman of the State Board of Education, Jane deFrees, of Rumford Center. She told the 50 people at the session that the state was footing the bill for 56 percent of the costs of educating Maine's youth.

She said that local areas would have to get used to picking up more of the tab for education, as federal and state money is cut back. "You need to put your debate into the perspective that this is a trend that's happening throughout the nation."

Superintendent Craig pointed out that state funding in SAD #44 has dropped in three years from 58 percent to 50 percent. Mrs. deFrees responded that state funding was dropping because local valuation was increasing, thereby indicating the ability of the local area to shoulder more of the cost of local education.

Bethel Selectman Pat Doen argued that property valuations were inflated because of outside money coming into the area, especially in Newry. She said this was not a valid indicator of local people's ability to shoulder more costs.

Mrs. deFrees was sympathetic. "We're all aware that the property tax can't bear this," she said. But she had no solution.

Former Woodstock selectman Ethel Davis pointed out that increased valuation meant nothing to people on low or fixed incomes. "One concern to me is our senior citizens. They're going to be hurt really, really bad."

Former school director Pat Hudson, of Bethel, criticized the state board for insisting on new programs and procedures in local school districts before ascertaining whether there would be money to pay for the additional programs. "Is it proper to mandate these things without the state having plans for funding? Perhaps we have to pull in our horns a little bit on making these changes."

Former school director Paul Hilquist, of Woodstock, said, "I think a study should be done to determine costs before the programs are mandated."

And Sen. Twitchell said, "I agree." On the proposed budget itself, Mrs. Hudson voiced the thinking of a number of the participants when she said, "Spending money doesn't always buy better quality (education)."

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

The Eleanor Guild held their annual mother and daughter banquet May 6 at the Country War in South Paris. The president, Betty Perkins, greeted the group and had each member introduce their guest. Jeannette St. Pierre gave the blessing before the bountiful buffet. Poems with tributes to mother or daughter were read by Debbie Adams, Marie Thompson, Edna York, Betty Blake and Barbara Mahler. A three generation group was present: Cindy Blake, her mother Jeannette St. Pierre, and her mother, Dorothy Purrington. Each guest was presented with a corsage and a gift from a big May basket.

Those present were: Betty Perkins, Muriel Butters, Doris Fraser, Edleen Winslow, Sue Fraser, Edna York, Debbie Adams, Mary Doen, Avis Doen, Frances Saunders, Pat Cook, Cindy Blake, Betty Blake, Jeannette St. Pierre, Wilma Gorman, Bea Grover, Sally Downing, Connie Hindman, Barbara Mahler, Muriel Faudi, all from Bethel; Dorothy Purrington, Troy, N.H.; Chloe Cummings, Norway; and Marie Thompson, North Jay.

"I'm not sure that they're providing anything but higher salaries for teachers," Edleen Winslow, owner of Charlie's Place, said.

"I think Pat has a valid point," added Selectman Doen. "It (the proposed school budget) will put our town on its knees," she said, pointing out that tax bills will jump 35 percent, even though the municipal budget will add almost no additional amount to the tax bill.

Bethel resident John Gray, who works for P.H. Chadbourne & Co., said the higher taxes will hurt the local wood-based industries. "There's industries in western Maine that are just treading water—we have been for the past four years. I would hope the (school) directors understand that saying 'no' is not easy, but something you just have to do. The directors should take the budget back and come back with something more reasonable and more acceptable."

Mrs. Winslow complained that staff salaries were getting out of line. "I'd like to ask the school board and the school officials if they'd like to work for my wages"—about $1500 after all expenses, she figured.

"We have to base teacher salaries on local economic conditions," said Selectman Doen.

Sen. Twitchell concurred that sometimes school boards lean too far towards pleasing school personnel. "Over our way [in SAD #17] the board first wanted to do away with football (to save money), then they turn around and give the superintendent 50 thousand ($50,000)."

State Board of Education Chairman deFrees left a number of people scratching their heads when she concluded, "I would caution you against using simple mathematics in dealing with the budget."

FORMER UNION AT STOWELL'S

 He said the settlement would likely involve hiring those union workers who had not been hired back and were still in the area, and arriving at a monetary settlement with those who had left the area after not being hired back. "We're going to get together and make a mutual settlement," he said.

The charges were leveled by 47 former union members who said they were discriminated against. Mr. Bickford pointed out that nine of them have already been rehired, leaving just 38. (The company, which has been increasing its workforce steadily, now has 98 employees.)

W.W. I BARRACKS AUXILIARY

The World War I Barracks Auxiliary met at the American Legion Hall on Vernon Street, May 7, preceded by a potluck lunch served by Maude Danforth and Frances Bennett.

The following officers were installed by Hilda Donahue: senior vice president, Myra Stevens; junior vice president, Adeline Dexter; chaplain, Olive Head; conductress, Maude Danforth; secretary, Frances Bennett; patriotic instructor, Olive Head; banner bearer, Bessie Pope; flag bearer, Belle Lavorgna; publicity, Iola C. Forbes; legislative, Frances Bennett; membership, Hilda Donahue; hospital, Olive Head; Americanism, Adeline Dexter; trustees, Olive Head, Bessie Pope, Myra Stevens, Maude Danforth, Bessie Pope; alternates for state convention, Rose Taylor, Frances Bennett, Mary Bishop; delegate at large, Hilda Donahue.

A memorial will be held at the next meeting for deceased members with Olive Head in charge.

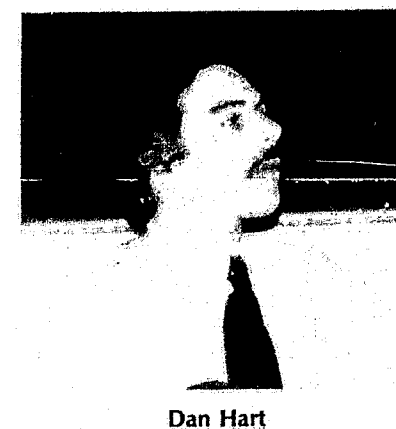

Frances Bennett reported on Council meeting, six members attended.

BRIDGE GROUP MEETS

Barbara Merrill and 16 of her bridge fans from Ogunquit, Wells, York, and Littleton, N.H., met with Bethel bridge players May 7 for a fun day.

After dinner at The Bethel Inn they went to the Cascade Condominiums, at Sunday River, where they enjoyed all the amenities of the place—swimming, jacuzzi, etc.

The following day the bridge games began. Eight tables played. Prizes were awarded as follows: 1st, Gwen Shihbs; 2nd, Marge Kyes; 3rd, Barbara Douglass; 4th, Irene Gallen; 5th, Betty Mayo. The Ogunquit club is already planning the return game, in Ogunquit, in the fall.

Dan Hart

Guidance director named 'Outstanding Counselor'

Dan Hart, guidance director at Telstar Regional High School, has been selected as the "Outstanding Counselor" in Maine for 1985-86 by the members of the New England Association of College Admissions Counselors.

Mr. Hart will be given his award at the annual business meeting of the NEACAC, at Bates College, Lewiston, May 29.

Three years ago NEACAC established a committee to improve school/college relations. Their first project was to establish a means by which high school counselors could receive some annual recognition for their work. After receiving nominations from nearly 100 college members, the NEACAC selected one public counselor and one independent school counselor from each of the six New England states.

The award to Mr. Hart states that he deserves recognition for his exemplary qualities of integrity, efficiency, thoroughness, patience, sensitivity and wit.

Telstar Principal Ted Davis said the qualities cited by the NEACAC are the reasons for his popularity among the students. Consequently he averages a 60-hour work week to handle the numerous requests made by students, parents, faculty, administration and the community.

Parent's nights, college workshops, job search workshops, peer tutoring and Advanced Placement programs, the Job Bank, Career Week, freshmen and new student orientations, Summer School—these are some of the programs Mr. Hart is responsible for implementing.

Principal Davis said, "We congratulate Mr. Hart on his award and commend him for his dedication. We are most fortunate he is here for the students of this district."

Cloudy and chance of rain seems to be the weather report for today and tomorrow and then rain on Thursday. Seems to me we have had a lot of cloudy weather with chances of rain lately and how I wish the sun would come out and give us some dry clear weather for a change. Don't suppose I should complain but guess I have as much right as the next fellow.

Went to the doctors us usual last week and noticed all the pretty flowers in the gardens along the way. There are more and more of them and they are so pretty. How I wish I could have a bouquet of them in the house but guess I will forgo the pleasure as they don't agree with my allergies. I enjoy the beauty of them as they bloom in the garden, anyway.

Peggy and Russell drove me to Lewiston on Thursday to go to Woodland up by Calais, with my daughter and family on Friday. We were to leave bright and early in the morning so had to be there Thursday and stay over in order to be ready. What a beautiful morning Friday was to start a trip up-country. The girls were both up early and we were on our way shortly after 7 a.m. We were going to attend Nonie's husband's sisters wedding on Saturday and Nonie was to help and Courtney was to be the flower girl. Michael was an usher and so this old Nanna went along to look out for Kariann and do whatever she could to help.

Michael's sister Jeanne had asked me to make her a ring pillow, which I had done, and Courtney's dress was done so once the cars were packed, we were on our way. We went to Bangor airport to wait for Michael's father and brother to arrive to go to Woodland with us. As usual, the plane was late but gave the girls a chance to stretch their legs and every plane that came in, Courtney thought ought to be Grampa's plane. When it did finally get in, nearly an hour late because of work being done in Boston on the runways, Courtney sure gave her Grampa a warm welcome. She hasn't seen her Uncle Emmet so much so his welcome wasn't as warm but she was happy to see them both. We got them loaded in to my car and went to pick up the suits for the fellows to wear at the wedding.

Then were on our way up through the 90 miles to Jeanne's trailer. The roads aren't the best up that way so part of the way was rather a bumpy ride but we made it all in one piece. It was so good Friday but Saturday morning when we looked out the window, what did we see but snow, and it was cold. Couldn't do what we had planned on Friday so Saturday was a real busy day for all. The ladies getting their hair done and even I rated where that was concerned so looked as good as the others. Courtney had a special hair do and she looked real good to be a flower girl. The little ring bearer was about her age and height and they stole the show. The did such a good job and with Chad, the ring bearer, in his special suit, the two little ones were quite the couple. The best part was that they gave Chad the garter to put on the lady's leg; the one who caught the bouquet. It was cute and then Courtney, who loves music and loves to dance tried so hard to get Chad to dance with her. She wanted to lead but he just didn't how to dance as she does so she danced alone and I don't think she missed a dance. She loves music and dancing so much and has the right beat to keep in step with the music that it is fun to watch her. We were some tired and went to bed early that night after all the doings. Spent Sunday at the trailer with Jeanne's mother and sister who had come from California for the wedding; the sister being the bridesmaid. All in all, it was a lovely wedding and reception but we were glad to be on the way home on Sunday afternoon to leave Grampa and Emmet at the airport and then head down the pike toward home with all of us very tired. Quite a weekend was had by all of us who went.

Russell said that he and Peggy went to see Bryce and Barbara Yates on Saturday but Barb was in New Hampshire to see her new grandchild so they only saw Bryce. They then went and saw Peggy's grandson, Jim, play a double header in baseball but said it was very cold and windy so didn't enjoy it as much as they had hoped to.

Peggy spent the most of Sunday in Bethel visiting her daughter Loretta and family as her oldest grandson was to be at home. Russell worked around home and I didn't get up until about nine or a little after. Was glad to get home and in to my own bed.

Monday night was a three point meeting at Franklin Grange and we planned to go so had to get some real rest to be ready to go the doctor's, too. Just another busy day in our lives.

Got a little news from a neighbor so will try to get it written right. Julie Gleason, of Walpole, N.H., visited Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mack recently. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mack visited Robert Dunn in Sumner who has had a heart attack and expects to have surgery done.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lovejoy Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mack attended the funeral of Elsie Libby who had lived in the neighborhood for so long.

The Raymond Macks and the Archie Lovejoys Jr. visited Harold Dingham and family in Andover recently. They even saw a couple of girls skinny-dipping in the lake and wondered how they could do it at this time of year when the water is so cold. Hope they didn't catch pneumonia.

Ellen Coffin of Norway was a visitor of Mrs. Archie Lovejoy the other day. Mrs. Lovejoy burned her hand quite badly while making popcorn for the children she cares for and had to go to the hospital to have it tended to. She says it is nothing that won't heal soon and won't stop her from doing most of her usual chores around the house. Am glad to hear it wasn't worse.

With the weather so cloudy and showery, there isn't much to do outside so guess this is it for this time. Hope everyone is well and enjoying the cool spring weather. Cheer up, maybe we will see the sun soon, I hope.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoyt, and Bobby, and Beatrice Farnum joined Mr. and Mrs. David Crockett and Ray, for a birthday cookout to celebrate Ray Crockett's 2nd birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Crockett, Cynthia Wakefield and boys, Jim Hoyt, Marion Billings, Wanda Hemingway and boys, and Maranda Crockett.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hermes, Old Town, visited Mrs. Kaye Billings recently.

Saturday, May 17, there will be a men's prayer breakfast at Paris Hill. Also on Saturday May 17 from 10 to 11:30 is a Mini Spark-A-Rama; 1:30 to 4 p.m. Awana "track meet" in the Woodstock Gym.

Franklin Grange #124 met on Monday, May 13, for a three point meeting. A 6:30 supper was held before the meeting. Fifty-five people were present. Officers were held by Norway Grange: Master, Peter Hammond; Overseer, Lyman Herick; Chaplain, Robert Sessions; Lecturer, Ruby Marshall; Steward, Lauren Gardner; Assistant Steward, Randall Jack; Lady Assistant Steward, Linda Jack; Ceres, Rose Herrick; Pomona, Alma Gardner; Flora, Vera Emerson; Treasurer, Lettie Brooks; CWA, Janice Scribner, Katherine Harrison, Ex. Comm., Francis Allen. Invitation to Wilson Grange, May 17, and Shelburne, N.H., July 12. The next 3-point meeting will be May 21 at West Sumner. Program as follows: song by all; Richard Felt welcomed everyone; several people took part in a reading about the grange; skit by several members; song by all; reading by Russell Yates; harmonica solo by Alan Farrar; Mr. Farrar also told a couple stories; game by 12 members; two songs by Harry Boyer; song by Jean Vanouir; Chester Hayes told a couple stories; closing thought, and song by all.

The Woodstock Alumni Association met on Tuesday evening. Invitations were written to the 90 and 50 year alumni and 1986 Telstar seniors from Woodstock and Greenwood. Telstar seniors with a parent or grandparent who graduated from Woodstock High School should sign up for the $50 scholarship at the guidance office. The alumni banquet is to be held at the Telstar Regional High School cafeteria on June 14 at 6 p.m.

The board of selectmen after holding the budget of Woodstock the same as last year are unanimously opposed to the increase expected by SAD #44. It is imperative that as many voters as possible attend the meeting at Telstar Auditorium on May 28, at 7 p.m.

Franklin Grange will meet on May 19 for Deputy Inspection.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hathaway were Sunday dinner guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Reynold Jordan, Waterford. Also present were Vance Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Rey Jordan Jr. and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Estes and Karen, Brian, Millett, Casey, and Lindsey Newell, Carlton Estes, and Tricia, and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hathaway.

Esther Davis entertained Mr. and Mrs. Erlon Twitchell and Olive Davis at supper Thursday night.

Brad Phillips hauled some dressing for my garden Friday evening.

Vera Buck, Olive Davis and Esther Davis attended the minstrel show at Buckfield Saturday evening. It was very good. Mary Miclon and son, Michael, took part in the show. Mike was the interlocutor, and his wife "Dirty Mary," one of the end ladies. They had a full house. It was reported they had earned $1,200 for scholarships with the two-night show. Eric Clements also attended the show.

The unusual cold weather this week is getting us down. We hope next week will be warmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Hathaway and daughter arrived home Thursday from their trip to Georgia to visit their son, David, and family. Mrs. David Hathaway and baby came to Portland by plane to be with the Hathaways for awhile. David is being sent to Arizona for a while. He is in the service.

Esther Davis took dinner with Patsy Tibbets in Oxford. Her grandson, Neil, came with her and will mow her lawn before returning home.

Raymond Hutchins, Arthur Mystrall, John Foster, all of Andover, and Rex Thurston, East Andover, attended the joint meeting of the selectmen at the Greenwood town hall Monday night. Due to a stomach virus, I was unable to attend. On Thursday night Darlene Hall, Rex Thurston, John Foster and I attended the third meeting. Raymond and Arthur had prior commitments so were unable to attend. There was a good turnout of concerned citizens and some helpful exchange of ideas.

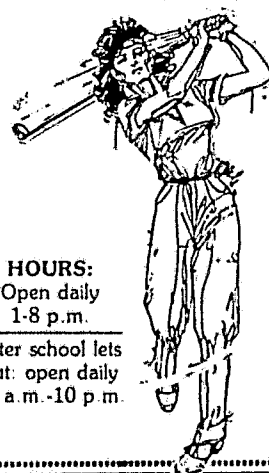

Kathy Williamson, town clerk of Andover, attended a course on elections on Wednesday, May 7. She will be attending another course next Wednesday.

How wonderful to awake to bright sunshine this morning after all the rain. Everything is so green, like the rain gave all of God's creation new hope. The garden is looking real good.

Sunday, May 4, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hutchins visited Mr. and Mrs. Vernon King, my step-daughter and husband, in Ashland, N.H. We left here on cloudy weather but it turned out to be sunny over there, though chilly. Enough snow had fallen Saturday night so that the sides of the road and the ski trails in Franconia Notch were covered with snow, when we went over. On the way back there was no indication of there ever having been any snow anywhere, except as Mt. Washington came into view, totally covered and glistening in the sunlight. On the return trip, I took Rt. 3 into North Woodstock where I stopped at Clark's Trading Post to look at the bears. Three fat lazy ones were lying, stretched full-length, sleeping in the sun, totally uninterested in eating. One big fellow, who performs in the summer shows, was trying to get the other in the pen with him to play, but his attempts were futile. The sun made the other one too sleepy to play. Some kind of sparrow kept flitting in and out through the wire enjoying a feast on the uneaten pellets that had been put down the pipes into the bears' pens. Even its activity went unnoticed by the bears.

Raymond Hutchins, Arthur Mystrall, John Foster, all of Andover, and Rex Thurston, East Andover, attended the joint meeting of the selectmen at the Greenwood town hall Monday night. Due to a stomach virus, I was unable to attend. On Thursday night Darlene Hall, Rex Thurston, John Foster and I attended the third meeting. Raymond and Arthur had prior commitments so were unable to attend. There was a good turnout of concerned citizens and some helpful exchange of ideas.

By PAULINE SMITH

Roy and Mary Smith of South Paris visited neighbors and friends in Lovell Monday.

Pauline and Leroy Smith called on Marlin and Albert Libby Monday, also visited with V. Plummer, 92 years young. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wall from Massachusetts visited this week with Don and Phyllis Gregson.

Leroy and Pauline Smith had dinner with their daughter Carolyn Knight and family Friday evening.

Iva Fox and Susan Fox went to a children's program at school on Friday. Carolyn Knights and mother, Pauline Smith, called on their Aunt Ona at the Health Care Facility, South Paris. Also saw Tom Brown, and Lempi, a friend, there on Friday.

Materials have been received by area volunteers for the Heart Fund collection. Chairman of the Heart Fund Drive this year is Mrs. Marion Coolidge, South Andover. The volunteers will be visiting door-to-door in their designated areas during the month of May. The drive has been held during the month of February over the years. The month of May has been designated High Blood Pressure Month, hence the change in collection month.

I received a beautiful mixed bouquet yesterday for Mother's Day from my son, Greg, and family. Seems like Mother's Day has come so soon. I'm still "thinking April" and May has arrived. A Happy Mother's Day to all anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Swain II of Newburyport, Mass., are the parents of a baby daughter, born May 6, weighing in at 8 1/2 lbs. She has been named Lucie Katherine and joins a 5 1/2 year sister, Courtney Amelia. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Swain of East Andover and a maternal grandmother, Mrs. William Roth of St. Louis, Mo.

My apologies to Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett of Andover. She is a paternal great-grandmother to Lindsey May Farrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Farrington.

Steer This Way

By Win Carrick

It's not so many years ago that power steering, automatic transmission and air conditioning were considered "gadgets" on a new car, not likely to last. Aren't we glad to have them now!

Need coins for tolls and parking? Store 'em in an empty 35mm film container in glove compartment or other storage area. Tight lid keeps coins from spilling.

What are "severe" driving conditions? Not only towing a car or driving on dusty roads, but even stop-and-go in-town driving and prolonged idling are hard on your car. Be sure to change oil more often.

Do-it-yourself breath alcohol tester—a tube of chemically impregnated silica gel crystals—is now available. Blowing too-high alcohol vapor into the tube changes the color of the crystals.

Smart drivers always fasten their seat belts and lock car doors before driving.

Smart car shoppers know the best new (and late-model used) cars—and the best buys—are at:

Greenwood City

By COLISTA MORGAN

The sun is like a gigantic fireball, teetering upon the thin edge of the earth's far away horizon. Our summer daylight has a habit of lingering on, and on, even after dusk ordinarily should have turned off into evening.

The last two days I needed a heavier coat because of the cold. It was one of those times when spring slips back into winter and all warmth of sun was betrayed. The wind was strong and a few snowflakes fell. May 3rd? Our May, so blue, so golden, so breath-takingly innocent? Yes, on May 3rd. I tumbled into my collar and tucked my chilly hands into my pockets.

The grass moves in the wind like ripples on the sea. The lanes and fields are brushed with tender green. In the distance are pine, spruce, and fir trees, dark and high. These with their spires seem to become the master of the land. I used to think their slender tops were close enough to touch.

Deep moving shadows, wraithlike with color never the same; never the same; blue, deep purple, or black-black later in the evening, touch the mountains.

There is such peace and beauty here in the strained fever of life. It builds strength for the body and soul.

I haven't had time to "do" the hills or walk this week. My time was spent with my husband at the hospital where he had surgery.

At the Haynes Homestead on Saturday were Dell and Betty Hayes, Auburn; Duane Hayes and family, West Paris; Scott and Tena Hayes and baby, West Paris.

At the Holt Farm the callers were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt and family, Windsor; Ann Holt, Bethel; Mrs. Dolly Verrell, South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat DiArenzo are home after some time with their son in Georgia.

Ann Holt took her mother to Boston to see her eye doctor on May 6.

Our callers here and by phone have been many. It is so helpful to have thoughtful friends and is much appreciated.

RUMFORD CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

HOLD REGISTRATION MAY 12-17

The Rumford Christian Academy is holding registration for the 1986-87 school year during the week of May 12th through the 18th. Registration will be at the school on Route 232 at Rumford Corner. Hours will be from 9:30 to 2:30 Monday through Friday and also Friday evening from 5 to 9. For information call 369-9373.

WINNERS IN THE AGNES GRAY SCHOOL'S SCIENCE FAIR last week were, left to right, Andrew Merrill (grade 5), Shane Record (grade 6), Amy Tikander (grade 5), Maylene Cummings (grade 6), Amy Merrill (grade 6), Shelley Robinson (grade 5), and Amy Small (grade 5). The students are behind Andrew Merrill's project, which is four different solar collectors constructed to demonstrate the heating efficiency of various materials and various construction techniques.

North Paris

By EVELINE B. VATCHER

We had miserable weather the past week with the temperature at 19 degrees Sunday morning so the Vatchers had a heavy frost in the asparagus bed. The weather hasn't been too good to dig dandelions for it rains so often.

Joe and Eveline went shopping Monday and took the wheel chair so it was more convenient for Eveline to get around and they had lunch out.

Callers at Lawrences: Marge Fuller, Richard Felt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Penley Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Norman Abbott, Joanne and Chrissy, Karen Merrill and James, Edgar Coffin, Bertha Benoit, Joe Vatcher.

The Community Club held a meeting at the Vatchers May 7. Treasurer's report was read and accepted. The secretary was absent so Doris Lawrence acted as secretary pro tem. Letters of thanks were read from the Cordwells and Tri Town Rescue for donations in memory of Rhoda Vatcher. Voted to have the next supper on May 31 at 5 p.m.

CLEAN-UP DAY MAY 17 AT MIDDLE INTERVALE CEMETERY

The Middle Intervale Cemetery Association met at the home of Robert and Althea Stevens last Thursday evening with 10 members present. It was voted to have the spring clean-up on May 17 with a rain date of May 18. Please come early to help.

Elected as officers were: president, Robert Stevens; vice president, Tim Carter; secretary, Althea Stevens; treasurer, Richard Carter; sexton, Alvin Stevens; and trustees, Elizabeth Carter, Randal and Alvin Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher went to Danvers, Mass., to see Mrs. Fannie Vatcher, Joe's mother, then to see his sister, Mrs. Fannie Whitten at Swampscott, Mass. It rained all day and when they had been home for half an hour it cleared off.

Arnold Coffin had a doctor's appointment Wednesday in Norway.

We are glad Mildred York has her bridge repaired and Dick Kenney, the oxygen man is also pleased.

West Paris

By MIRIAM INMAN

The West Paris Firemen's Auxiliary met Monday evening with eight members present. A report on the dance was given and it proved quite successful. The next meeting will be on June 2 when we will entertain the South Paris Firemen's Auxiliary at a 6:30 supper. We received an invitation from the Greenwood Firemen's Auxiliary to a supper in June. We will be making plans to entertain them at a later date. It was voted to have a sign made for the fire station.

The Tuesday afternoon craft group treated themselves by going out to lunch this week. Those attending were Mary Emery, Lempi Cyr, Edith Morey, June Demarest, Joyce and Cynthia Lamb, and Miriam Inman. We returned to Cynthia's home to work on our own projects.

Rosalee Poland drove Lena Kangas to Lewiston on Monday for a doctor's appointment.

Brian Kangas called on his grandmother, Lena Kangas, on Saturday. Lena Kangas wishes to announce the

There will be a training session of the Greenwood Fire Department Tuesday, May 20, at 6:30 p.m. at the fire station.

The Ladies Circle will meet Wednesday, May 21, at 1:30 p.m. at the Sunday School room.

There will be a workday at the ball field, Saturday, May 17, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Coaches please have your teams and families come to help.

The Greenwood Historical Society met Wednesday at the society building with 19 people present. The society was disappointed to find that the film promised to them from the Maine State Library did not come. The library's mailing section has been closed for repair due to an asbestos problem. There was further discussion on getting the 1987 calendars. The building committee reported they are still waiting for the contractor who has been ill. There were four donations: a desk lamp from Mellen Kimball, a calendar plate 1911-1912 compliments of Charles Doyle and Son from Harry and Margery Swan; a large number of town reports dating back to 1902 from Tessie Martin, and several nice aerial pictures of the area from Joanne Kimball. Joanne also furnished the refreshments. Denise Swan will furnish them for the June meeting.

Reminder: The old time dance will be Saturday, May 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith, Wallingford, Conn., are visiting relatives in the area this weekend. Claire took Vera Cross out to supper Friday evening.

John Mills spent Friday and Saturday at Men's Retreat at Geneva Point Center, Lake Winnepesaukee, Centre Harbor, N.H. Also attending were Charles Hodgkins, Roger Chopping, Ken Davis, Al Larren, and Tim Cormier.

Lorraine Mills visited Frances Davis in Newry Friday afternoon and then went to Norway on business. She also attended prayer meeting Friday evening at Rev. and Mrs. Lyle Van Horn's in Mexico.

Gilbert Manufacturing Co. announced the mill will go on a 32½ hour work week starting Monday, May 12.

marriage of her daughter, Sandra, to Joseph Rojas on April 14, in Golden, Colo. They are living at present at 137 C Street, Hideaway Hill, Golden, Colo.

Members of the Universalist Church are reminded of the cleaning bee (inside and out) to be held at the church on Saturday, May 17, at 9 a.m.

The West Paris Historical Society will meet Monday, May 19, at the society building. A potluck supper will precede the meeting.

Agnes Gray School

By MARTA CLEMENTS

Two and a half weeks have passed since vacation. What a combination of school work and activities has been going on! Grades 1-6 have spent a good part of one week taking achievement tests. The kindergarten children have made special plaques for their mothers on Mother's Day. The first graders have created beautiful May baskets using for their mothers tissue paper over balloons. They also made a special May basket to hang on the kindergarten class to teach them about a favorite spring tradition. Mr. Koch, grade 6, brought back an idea from the Woodstock school's gala art festival and has been teaching how to make beautiful pictures of birch trees. Now we all want to do it.

Our local science fair was held May 8, in the gymnasium. Grades 4-6 participated and the projects were impressive. The boys and girls worked hard and did a super job. The 5th and 6th grades were competing among themselves for a chance to go to the district fair on Friday, May 16. The judges had a difficult time choosing, but the decisions were made and the winners were:

• Grade 6: 1st place, Amy Cummings, homemade chemistry set; 2nd place, Maylene Cummings, capillary action; 3rd place, Shane Record, ski jump.

• Grade 5: 1st, Andrew Merrill, solar energy; 2nd, Amy Small and Shelley Robinson, respiratory system; 3rd, Amy Tikander, skin and fingerprints.

May 8 was extra busy for some students. In addition to finishing up achievement testing and preparing for the science fair, the annual band jamboree at Oxford Hills Junior High in the evening. The elementary, junior high and high school bands all "tooted" their stuff.

Current and former students performed well. Participating in the concert from the Agnes Gray School were: Heather and Diana Poland, 5th grade flute players, and Maylene Cummings, grade 6, who played the clarinet.

Despite the recent cold spell bicycle safety must mean spring is here. On May 9, Randy Olson went over the rules of the road, bicycle equipment, kinds of brakes, etc. Two different styles of bicycles were demonstrated, a BMX and a 10 speed. Mike Akers, Cory Tripp and Jessie Eastman volunteered to help Mr. Olson with his presentation.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all my friends and relatives for cards, flowers, gifts and visits at the hospital and at home.

God bless you all.

The Ladies Circle met May 5, at the home of Olive Anderson. President Gilberte Seeley opened the meeting. Devotions were read by Olive Anderson. Secretary Sylvia Harrington read the minutes of the last meeting, also a letter of thanks from Missionary Pauline Browne. Olive Anderson brought the financial records up to date. The Circle still has some 1985-86 calendars for sale. A get well card was sent to Rae Bartholomew, who has recently been in the hospital for surgery. A lawn sale will be held June 7, at the home of Sylvia Wight, beginning at 10 a.m. to help raise money for the church clock. Members are asked to donate articles for the sale. Following the meeting a birthday party was given Louise Tetley. Cake and ice cream were served. The next meeting will be preceded by a supper. It will be held at the home of Sylvia Harrington June 2, at 6:30 p.m. Officers will be elected at this meeting.

Carl Toti, Theresa Toti and Umberto Toti, Rhode Island, visited Gilberte Seeley last week.

Eleanor Davis, Louise Tetley, Gilberte Seeley, Thelma Lowery, Betsy Clark, Beatrice Lowell, Nancy Wight, June Swan, and Olive Anderson, were in Rumford bowling May 7. Eleanor Davis was high scorer, with Louise Tetley a close second. Thelma Lowery was high on the three string.

The subject of Pastor Hanscom's message last Sunday morning was "A Glimpse of Heaven," with portion of Revelations 22 read throughout the sermon. Coffee was served by Sylvia Wight after the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Glover, Hollis, spent the weekend at their camp. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cummings, Bethel, called on them Saturday p.m.

Jay Hanson was guest of honor at a party on his second birthday, May 4, at the home of his parents, Brian and Wendy Hanson. Attending were Brian, Wendy, Jay, Adam, and Eric Hanson, Eleanor Davis, Newry; Rodney, Kathy and Nancy Hanson, David, Christine, Becky, and David Hanson Jr., Dennis, Stephanie, Denise and Keith Walley, Ruth and Arthur Cummings, Bethel. The birthday cakes were made and decorated by Wendy Hanson.

Laurie Bergeron flew to Abilene, Tex., Thursday to visit the Willifords. She will drive back with her sister, Kathy and her two nephews, Nathan and James Williford.

Roland and I have had a long spell of flu-type sickness. We finally went to the doctor as home remedies weren't effective enough.

Elsie Fuller is home and reported as doing well.

Arline Bernier went to Norway for a regular check-up stemming from last summer's cancer operation.

Ray, Vi and Arthur Bernier of Woburn, Mass., spent the weekend in Upton with relatives. They walked their property and staked out the homestead.

Blue sky and sunshine looked extra beautiful after a week long spell of drizzle, rain with showings of snow flurries.

CARD OF THANKS

Thanks to all my friends for all the beautiful cards and flowers during my stay in the hospital and for the food and get well wishes since I have been home. God bless you all.

Mrs. Lillian Bartlett, Mrs. Florence Hastings and Mrs. Floribel Haines will attend the Retired Teachers meeting in Oxford Saturday.

Mrs. Floribel Haines, Mrs. Lillian Bartlett, Mrs. Peggy Coolidge and Mrs. Maud Danforth attended the Senior Citizens' dinner at Sunday River Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hastings had a picnic lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bancroft on Paris Hill Mother's Day, and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Morton and family in Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hastings attended the graduation of their son, Jeff, from the University of Maine, Orono.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Leighton and son, Alan, of Enfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. Chester Harrington, Sunday, May 4.

Mrs. Chester Kimball has been in the Stephens Memorial Hospital for several days with a heart attack. She hopes to get home early this week.

Mrs. Laurence Pelletier of Manchester, N.H., was here over the weekend to visit her mother, Mrs. Chester Kimball, while she was in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kimball will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on May 15. Congratulations and many of them!

Daniel Stearns of Rumford Point came after me so we could celebrate Cory

PROJECTS PLANNED

Members of the Telstar Middle/High School field hockey and basketball teams are sponsoring a benefit "Shop 'n' Save" supper on May 29 in the Telstar cafeteria. Money is to go to payment for summer camp attendance.

The girls have made a commitment to the sports they love and have decided to spend extra time during the summer to improve their skills.

Several fundraisers, including a dance, car wash, selling snacks after school practices are just a few of the projects the 20 girls have planned.

Parents, coaches, and teachers are assisting with all the projects. For the May 29 dinner, games, food giveaways, the selling of spirit items and other fun things are in the making. Take advantage of a fine meal as well as supporting your local teams that evening.

Stearns' second birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Stearns are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Erin, in Lewiston on May 9, so now I finally have a great granddaughter to go with the three great grandsons, Cory, Benjamin and Eric.

Mrs. Myra Foster was a guest of a family get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Foster in Andover for Mother's Day.

Recent callers at Irene Wilson's have been Helen Crowell, Portland; Muriel Butters and Laurie Wilson, Bethel; Steve and Alan Wilson, Gilead, and Gideon Dorman, Locke Mills.

Denny and Rita Wilson were in Lewiston, Saturday.

Steve and Paula Wilson, Bangor, have a baby boy. James Ryan was born Thursday night or Friday morning, I don't know which yet. Gloria Wilson drove up Saturday to see her new grandson and his sister, Jennifer.

Leah Deegan had her glasses changed Thursday and Irene is also getting used to a new pair.

Joe and Muriel Gilbert were in Lewiston and Berlin last week.

Jean and Al Collet brought their granddaughter, Christina Lougee, with them from Sebago to visit Joe and Muriel.

How nice to hear the frogs once more. Sunday, May 4, Father McAllister of Norway was the speaker at the church service.

Mrs. Gertrude Yemma and Mrs. Kate Flynn visited Mrs. Grace Nelson.

Mrs. Iva Andrews is in the hospital at Bridgton with an infection in her foot.

Bruce Wilnum of Sunday River has bought the Ernest McAllister place on the School House Road.

Neil Littlefield and family of Guam are visiting relatives here. He is building a camp on Lake Keewaydin.

I visited my sister in the hospital at Bridgton and her very sick. Hope she will get better soon, and be able to get home.

Minerva Dudley entered the Northern Cumberland Memorial Hospital May 8 for tests and treatment. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Bob Tripp had a bad heart attack Friday and was taken to the Norway hospital.

Several from here attended the Senior Citizens meeting at North Waterford Wednesday. A game party was enjoyed after the meeting.

The Ladies Circle met at the home of Mrs. Mertice Barker Wednesday.

May 18 will be Children's Sunday at the North Waterford Church. The children will provide a program and mark the end of Sunday School.

Albert Nelson and his workers are busy getting on the cemeteries he has charge of ready for Memorial Day.

Many from town attended the mother-daughter banquet at North Waterford Church Tuesday night, May 6. A very night supper was served in the downstairs vestry to 100 persons. The entertainment was well presented by Karen Ellis and assistant and very much enjoyed by all. June Bachelder was the lucky winner of the "dinner for two" tickets given by "Westways" to benefit the

"Children's Summer Camp Program."

Junia Past Chiefs Club met at the home of Elizabeth Stearns May 6 for a noon day meal. Minerva Dudley assisted with preparing and serving the meal—only eight members were able to attend

Mrs. Lester Butters is a surgical patient at Maine Medical Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Saunders are at their home on Elm Street after spending the winter months in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Perkins visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Trenholm in Kingfield Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker spent last week in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. While there they visited the Bay of Fundy National Park, Market Square in Saint John, New Brunswick, viewed the "Tidal Bar" in Truro, Nova Scotia, and crossed the Bay of Fundy on the ship, "The Prince of Acadia."

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Lowell have returned from a trip to Yarmouth, Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Florena McEwen visited Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Cushing for a few days last week.

Mrs. Evelyn Wing spent Mother's Day with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brown, in Jay.

Mrs. Dianne Saunders is at home following surgery at Stephens Memorial Hospital. Annemarie Saunders Peck, Cummings, Ga., is visiting her mother this week.

Ginny Walker will sing at the Bethel Gospel Center on Sunday, May 18, at 6 p.m.

Mabel Robinson, Manchester, N.H., is spending the summer at her home on Vernon Street.

due to other commitments. Two birthday cakes were presented for the month of May—one to Mertice Barker (who could not attend) from Hildred Safford, and one to Sarah Grover from Minerva Dudley. Much of the business was given to details of the reception planned for Eloise Vail—president of the State P.C. Club and Arlene Merrill, a state club officer. The hostess prize went to Minerva Dudley and the mystery prize to Violet Doughty. The June meeting will be hosted by Violet Doughty at her cottage on Lake Keewaydin.

Spring News Flash!

Dining

Breakfast and dinner are now served daily in our upstairs dining rooms. Chef Norton Brooks offers a wide selection of beef and seafood entrees prepared to his exacting standards. Dinner reservations are recommended.

Our charcoal barbecue luncheons are served on the screened-in terrace from 12 noon until 3 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Salads, deli sandwiches and lots of specialties — besides the best burgers around.

Mill Brook Tavern

The tavern is open Monday through Thursday from 5 p.m. until closing and on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 12 noon until closing. The terrace is open now and is a perfect spot to put the cares of the day behind you. A special selection of "spring" libations is offered.

Country Club Memberships

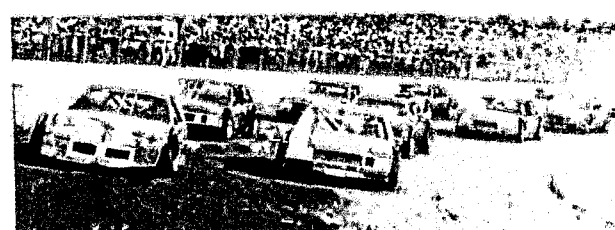

Memberships are still available and include golf, the swimming pool, tennis and the Lake House (for swimming and sailing) privileges. Special plans are available for individuals, families and non-residents.

Elderwood Manor Items

by Florence Hall

Guy Hall, Bethel, Conn., visited his great aunt, Florence Hall, Tuesday afternoon.

Gertrude Hutchins and Florence Hall were overnight guests with Florence's nephew, Alfred Marston, daughter, Tiffanie, and son, Christopher, Hollis, Monday, May 5.

Kitty Fox, Bethel, took Anne Fox to the dentist on Tuesday.

Mini his riders from the Manor were Bernice Glover, Dorothy Elliott, Catherine McGuire and Elizabeth Sennett.

Florence Hall went with Cam Harrigan to Rumford May 6 where they enjoyed a concert sponsored by the Rumford Community Hospital Association—Pop Goes the Music by the Max Marath Quintet.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman White have returned home from their visit to Nova Scotia. While there they attended a birthday party for his aunt who was celebrating her 98th year.

Florence Hall called on Arvilla Feener one afternoon.

Callers at Bernice Glover's, Laura Dolloff, South Andover, daughter, Mary Thurston, Marion Ladd, Rumford Point, Vern and Vada Glover, Hollis, Stella Glover, Rumford.

Marion Ladd, Rumford Point, visited Dorothy Elliott and Georgia Fraser.

Callers at Alma Hewey's were her daughter, Louise Powell, Hale, and Marion Bodwell, Bethel.

Many rose bushes have been planted at the Manor. We are looking forward to beautiful blossoms this summer.

Flora Whitten called on Gertrude Hutchins and Florence Hall.

Thought for the Day

Application—Widom is knowing what to do next; skill is knowing how to do it; virtue is doing it.

Calvary Congregational Church

Tuesday, Rev. Donald Grover led the service with responsive reading, Luke 10:25-37. Meditation: Gal. 6:10, "As we have the opportunity, let us do good unto all." Special music: "I Gave My Life For Thee."

Message: Brother Glen MonGold and family from Chesapeake, Va. Mr. MonGold spoke from I King. Also sharing in the work he is called to, ships from over 60 nations anchor in the ports, and he has the opportunity to present Gospel to these men. After the service a fellowship dinner was enjoyed.

6 p.m., "Out of the Mouths of Babies." The Sunday School had a special, with music, skits, etc., with Barbara Bailey leading the children. Refreshments were enjoyed later.

May 17, men's breakfast, 7 a.m. Paris Hill Bible Church.

JACKSON-SILVER POST NEWS

Commander Earl Colby, of Jackson-Silver Post #68, American Legion, Locke Mills, is starting out on what looks like a busy year for him and his fellow members.

Earl, and Brian Strickland, attended the Volunteerism Workshop at Gould Academy May 3-4, observing "Volunteer Week." He has visited the Rumford and West Paris posts' installation ceremonies.

He has been active in raising funds for the Telstar Band and supplies for Project Graduation at the American Legion Hall, Locke Mills. President of the unit, Leah Deegan, is chairman of the 5 a.m. breakfast.

As second vice commander-elect of the Oxford County Council, he will be installed at the June 10 meeting in Oxford.

Retiring County Commander Charles Mason will serve next year as sergeant-at-arms. Kovi George will be the county historian.

Arrangements are complete for the Committal Service for WWI veteran Irving Martin, May 13, at 11 a.m., at the Martin Cemetery, in Greenwood.

Memorial Day plans for May 26 will be posted next week.

The next Oxford County meeting is May 20, in Fryeburg.

The next regular post and unit meetings are May 16, at 6 p.m.

Don't forget to fly the American flag and wear a little red poppy in memory of our honored dead.

$172.02 was given by you counted, blessed by our Savior and sent to feed the starving in Africa.

Many thanks to those who pitched in with the cleaning of windows, walls, lights and the sanding and varnishing of the front doors.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to any and all parties that may have interest in the forthcoming disposal of the Twitchell Pond Dam and Cole Family Dam are requested to give in writing comments to the property owner within thirty days regarding suggestions for sale or disposal of the same.

Especially persons owning or inhabiting the shore land of Twitchell Pond in Greenwood, Maine are offered this opportunity to give written comments.

This period of thirty days is not required by law, as the property is privately owned. The dam owner however feels that the pending disposal of the property may in the future have effect on the Pond and the shore land abutting.

Comments may be submitted in writing through May 31st, 1986.

Bethel Inn golf

The Mothers Day Opening Scramble was very successful with even the weather cooperating. Tied for first were the teams of Bill Matthews, Sue Crane, Roger Smith, Steve Richards, and Jim Lunney, Matt Laban, Joe Dyer, Amy Farrar, at three under par. At two under par were the teams of Frank Anastasio, John Harrington, Barb James, Bob Demers, and Bob Marchildon, John Tapley, Dennis Cook, Chris Craig, Nancy Cross. Everyone enjoyed the competition and all the sunshine.

League sign-ups are underway in the Pro Shop. Non-members are invited to participate in the 10-week league. Ladies' League starts Wednesday, June 4, and Men's Twilight League Thursday, June 5. Call the Pro Shop for more information.

There's still time left to sign-up for Pete's Golf School either May 20-23 or May 28-31. The cost is $60 for eight hours of instruction and both a morning and evening class will be offered.

Songo Pond

By ALICE KIMBALL

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kimball arrived at their home here Tuesday after spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Earlon Keniston were callers here Saturday evening. They left Wednesday to go to Ohio to attend his grandson's graduation from college this weekend.

Weston Flint and Mrs. Winona Verrill of South Paris were afternoon visitors of Mrs. Elmira Doyen.

The annual business meeting of the Songo Cemetery Association will be held here Sunday evening, May 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parsons were in North Conway, N.H., the first of this week. They also attended the community concert in Rumford one night. On Thursday Eleanor visited Mrs. Barbara Miller who is a patient at Stephens Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kimball of South Paris visited the Lawrence Kimballs one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lescault of West Paris and their son, Martin, were visitors Monday of their son, Mark Lescault and family in observance of Diane's and Martin's birthdays. Traditional birthday refreshments were enjoyed.

On Tuesday, Mark and Diane Lescault were in Portland for her medical check-up. Little Mark stayed with his grandparents. One morning while eating breakfast by the window, Diane and Mark Jr. saw a hawk dive into the pond and come up with a fish. Wednesday, Maurice Lescault helped Mark do some more finish work inside the house.

Mrs. Connie Hindman and her mother, Mrs. Elmira Doyen, were in Gorham, N.H., Friday afternoon for some shopping and enjoyed supper there also.

Mrs. Phyllis Bancroft and Mrs. Donna Lapham were in Berlin-Gorham, N.H., Friday evening.

What a pretty ride to Rumford Friday morning! The several colors of green of the new leaves bursting forth against the background of the darker evergreens, the blue sky reflected a deeper blue in the river, the bright sunshine overhead, every little way the cheerful yellows of blooming forsythias, bunches of daffodils and tulips and of course the perennial dandelions.

The difference between courtship and marriage is the difference between the pictures in a seed catalog and what comes up.

WEST BETHEL Children's Center

The theme "Careers" was continued last week, and some of the children visited Maine Street Realty, where Jenny Mae Wheeler's grandmother, Ginger Kelly, explained how houses were sold and also let each child copy a picture on the copy machine. Thanks, Ginger! A field trip to Gould's Bird Farm was also taken by the staff and children.
Three-year-old Spencer Tyler was the entertaining Star of the Week. Spencer is the son of Jerry and Lisa Tyler of West Bethel.
Day Care parents: The Center will be closed on Monday, May 19, and again on Monday, May 26, so you will need to find alternate day care on both of those days.
Thanks to volunteers and drivers—Lillian B., Nancy H., Jim and Jane C., Lois H., Ruth S., Opal T., Debbie P., and Brenda T.

Notes from the Woodstock Historical Society

Here is a description of an English garden scene by American author Henry James —
"The shadows on the perfect lawn were straight and angular; they were the shadows of an old man sitting in a deep wicker-chair near the low table on which the tea had been served, and of two younger men strolling to and fro in desultory talk... Privacy here reigned supreme. and a wide carpet of turf covered the level hill-top... The great still oaks and beeches flung down a shade as dense as that of velvet curtains... The river was at some distance; where the ground began to slope down the lawn. It was a charming walk down to the water... The house presented to the lawn its patches of ivy, its clustered chimneys, its windows smothered in creepers."
Much thanks to Stan Howe for his presentation to the historical society. As always, it is particularly nice to have speakers from neighboring preservationist organizations. And our program committee—Mary Billings and Anella Burnham — has been especially active this year in obtaining good, stimulating fare for your members.
Robert Billings has donated two more phones to the museum to go with the switchboard and phones the society already has.

Singer/songwriter in Bethel this week

Singer/songwriter Doug Day, of Swan's Island, Me., and New York City, has been teaching songwriting to Bethel elementary school students this week. "I'm bringing five years of acting and performing to the teaching 'stage' now. It'll be interesting to see what happens."
In addition to working with the grade school students, Mr. Day will be performing for area residents Thursday night in the auditorium at Gould Academy. Admission is free, but a donation will be taken.
During the summer, Mr. Day sings on board the schooners that come into Mackerel Cove on Swan's Island.

Rotary Club notes

The Bethel Rotary Club met at the Sudbury Inn for its regular luncheon meeting yesterday (Tuesday).
Scott Dennis, chairman of the Bike-a-Thon, which was held this past Saturday in support of the St. Jude's Children's Hospital, gave a report on the event. Bethel Rotary thanks Scott, his great helper, Sandy, and all the volunteer Rotarians, and those wonderful, energetic young bike riders for participating.
John Eliot, raffle chairman, selected Frank Ward to share in the pot this week.
The program chairman was Dewaine Craig and his guest speaker was David Walton, school counselor for SAD #44. His stress on guidance to help students and families was presented in a clear and interesting manner. The flip chart presentation was a great aid to the participants. The fine program was enjoyed by everyone.

LARRY W. PATTERSON

Larry W. Patterson, of Bethel, died unexpectedly Monday, May 12, 1986. He was born in Portland Feb. 24, 1959, the son of M. Wayne and Barbara Billings Patterson. He attended Bethel schools and graduated from Telstar Regional High School in the Class of 1977. He graduated May 9, 1986, from the Maine Criminal Justice Academy, Waterville, as a reserve officer.

At the time of his death he was employed by the Oxford County Sheriff's Department as a corrections officer. He worked part-time for the Bethel Police Department and was director of Bethel's Civil Emergency Preparedness. He was a member of the Bethel Volunteer Fire Department.

He is survived by his parents, of Bethel; a sister, Mrs. Marlene Patterson Powers, of Newry; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Marion T. Billings, of Milton; several uncles, aunts and cousins.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday, at the Greenleaf Funeral Home, Vernon Street, Bethel, with interment in the Abbotts Mills Cemetery, Rumford.

Friends and relatives may call at the funeral home from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday. In lieu of flowers, those who desire may make donations to the B.E.A.R.S., care of Emma Page, Bethel 04217.

DULCIMER-PLAYER PAM WEEKS, of West Paris, entertained Title I students and their parents at a district-wide ice cream social and book fair last Tuesday night at Telstar cafeteria. Books 'n Things, of Oxford, provided the books.

JONATHAN B. STEVENS

Jonathan B. Stevens of West Paris died Friday, May 9, 1986, as a result of injuries sustained in a highway accident in Harrison.

Born in Norway on Dec. 30, 1968, he was the son of Vincent T. and Jane Perham Stevens. He was a student and member of the junior class at Oxford Hills High School in South Paris. He enjoyed baseball and had participated in Farm, Little League and Colt League teams at West Paris.

Survivors include his father of West Paris; his mother, Mrs. Jane T. Howard of West Paris; his maternal grandmother, Hazel S. Perham of West Paris; and his paternal grandmother, Dorothy S. Stevens of New Gloucester.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Andrews Funeral Home, South Woodstock. Interment was at the Wayside Cemetery in West Paris.

Donations in his memory may be made to Tri-Town Rescue, c/o Richard Walker, treasurer, RFD, Buckfield, Maine 04220.

West Paris town office

The West Paris Board of Selectmen announced last Thursday night that they will begin assessing property on Main Street this week. They estimate that they will be on Main Street for two weeks.

The board received a notice from H.M. Payson that the library stock has been disposed of as previously authorized, and the current value of the reinvested stock is $28,825, with a projected annual yield of 5.7 percent.

The selectmen also received a letter from Municipal Service Company of Auburn regarding the bailing of white goods at the landfill. Because of DEP requirements, the company is requiring separation of hazardous items such as paint cans, drums and gas tanks. The tremendous availability of scrap and the world wide reduction in steel usage were reasons given for the price fall of white goods. In addition, other factors such as the poor condition of some scrap piles also affect the value of the material, and consequently the amount that is charged for removal.

Selectmen Judith McLaughlin and Gordon Doughty recently met with Woodstock selectmen to discuss the Harrison Winslow property, which, according to the West Paris maps, is located in both West Paris and Woodstock. The selectmen plan to investigate the situation when town lines are re-spotted this summer.

BIKE TREK NEARING CAPACITY

The Trek Across Maine: Bethel to the Sea, sponsored by Sunday River Ski Resort and Norstar Banks, has received over 160 registrations for its three day bike trek. "There is still room and still time to raise the necessary pledges," according to Peter King, the Maine Lung Association's Trek Director.

The ride begins at the Sunday River Ski Resort in Newry on Friday, June 20, and has scheduled overnight stops in Farmington and Unity. Experienced leaders and support vehicles will provide constant mechanical back-up and first aid. Travel gear will be transported for the Trekkers from the start to the finish. The 180 mile ride will end at the Samoset Resort along the shores of Peabody Bay in Rockport.

For more information about the 1986 Trek Across Maine, listen to WGAN Radio [FM 103], or contact the Maine Lung Association, 126 Sewall Street, Augusta, Maine, 04330; telephone (toll-free) 1-800-462-LUNG or 622-6394.

THIS WEEK AT THE Moses Mason House

The seventh annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show will be held at the Dr. Moses Mason House on Saturday, May 31, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All interested SAD #44 and Gould Academy students are urged to enter the show with a finished painting in any medium (crayon, chalk, oils, tempera paint and watercolors). All entries must be at the Dr. Moses Mason House by 5 p.m. Friday, May 24, in order to be considered for an award. Entries will be judged in three categories: junior (grades 1-4), intermediate (grades 5-8), senior (grades 9-12).

There will be three cash prizes in each division ($20 first, $15 second and $10 third). The show is held each year in honor of Society Honorary Member Faye Sanborn Taylor (1908-1972) who was a well-known local artist and very interested in art for young people. For further details regarding the show, please call the society office, at 824-2908.

The 197th anniversary of Dr. Moses Mason's birth will be observed on Sunday, June 1, with a public reception at his house from 2 to 4 p.m. As 1986 also marks the society's 20th year, there will be a special slide show in the meeting room beginning shortly after 2 p.m., by society director Stanley R. Howe, focusing on the history of the Bethel Historical Society. All interested persons are cordially invited to attend. A special exhibit on the society's 20 years will also open during the weekend.

On Friday, May 9, the society hosted a senior citizen group from Auburn, while Director Howe was attending a meeting of museum and historical directors at Norlands, in Livermore.

The Long-Range Planning Committee met this week and worked on refining goals. It was hoped that the membership questionnaire would be returned in the next few weeks so that these responses might be considered in the preliminary draft of the report to be considered by the trustees. The next meeting was scheduled for Tuesday, May 20, at society headquarters, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Also meeting this past week were the Art and Museum committees to plan for the upcoming events.

Several entries were received for the Dr. Moses Mason Award and are currently being reviewed by the judges: Edmond Vachon, Rosalind Chapman and Margaret Joy Tibbets.

Bethel Outing Club to hold annual meeting

The Bethel Outing Club will hold its annual meeting on Saturday, May 17. The club's specific purpose is to support nordic skiing. This past year has been very successful.

Last July they sponsored the annual Mollycodd Day Road Race. In November the annual fund raiser was held at the Gould Academy field house.

Division I for the Bill Koch ski series held a race on Feb. 9. For several years Don Angeline has been president of Division I and has had the support of the Bethel Outing Club in his travels and the Bill Koch Championships. This past winter Division I placed very well in regional competition at Putney, Vt.

Again last fall the club was able to contribute to Telstar Regional High School's and Gould Academy's nordic programs. The annual pot luck supper was held at the Hastings Farm to kick-off the winter season.

The club sent Maine's only J II Junior National qualifier to national competition at Royal Gorge, Calif. They also helped to fund Telstar Regional High School's Girls' Maine State Cross Country Championship Team on their trip to the Eastern High School Championships at Lake Placid, N.Y.

The annual meeting is traditionally a "bring your own" barbecue. This year it will be held at the Michaud residence on the Middle Intervale Road. The barbecue will begin at 5 p.m. with the meeting to follow at 7 p.m. Anyone interested in the Bethel Outing Club or its activities is encouraged to join in this annual event. If you wish to come or have any questions please contact the Remingtons at 824-3389, or the Michauds at 824-2384.
